

Marden Parish Council Expenses Policy

Adopted by Marden Council on 12 August 2019

Marden Parish Council will make reimbursement for all or some of the expenses the Clerk and the Councillors may incur on its behalf when performing the duties required by the Council. It is the aim of the Council that no Councillor or Officer will be financially disadvantaged when representing the Council.

Councillors and employees are responsible for the payment of all expenses they incur, except where there are direct settlement arrangements in place with suppliers.

Breach of this policy by Councillors or employees is a disciplinary offence, deliberate falsification of a claim or the evidence needed to make the claim will constitute misconduct. Falsification includes the failure to pass on any discount obtained during the course of incurring an expense.

All activities by Councillors made on behalf of the Parish Council that are likely to incur expenses must be approved in advance.

1. Clerk's Expenses

The Clerk will be able to claim the following expenses incurred in administration of the Council's affairs:
