

Marden Parish Council Disciplinary and Grievance Policy

Adopted by Marden Council on 9 September 2019

Disciplinary Procedure

1. Misconduct

- 1.1 This policy indicates the disciplinary procedure that will normally be followed in the event of misconduct. The following list provides examples of conduct that will normally be regarded as misconduct leading to disciplinary proceedings. The list is not exhaustive and these are examples only:
- a) Unsatisfactory time keeping
 - b) Absenteeism
 - c) Failure to comply with rules and regulations applicable to job requirements
 - d) Failure by an employee to perform the duties and responsibilities of his or her post to the standard expected by the council
 - e) Insubordination
 - f) Any other conduct that from time to time is defined by the council as amounting to misconduct.
- 1.2 For first instances of minor misconduct the Chair may speak to the employee informally before implementing a formal disciplinary procedure. However, there is no obligation for the Chair to do this.

2. Verbal warnings

- 2.1 Verbal Warnings are issued for most first instances of general misconduct, depending on the seriousness of the offence. If the employee is given a Verbal Warning he or she will be warned of the likely consequences of any further disciplinary offences or a failure to improve his or her conduct to the satisfaction of council. A note confirming the Verbal Warning will be placed on the employee's personnel file and a copy will be provided to the employee. A Verbal Warning will normally remain in force for 6 months. The Verbal Warning stage of the procedure may be omitted if the offence is of a sufficiently serious nature.

3. First written warning

- 3.1 In the case of a serious offence or repetition of an earlier minor offence the employee will normally be given a First Written Warning. A First Written Warning will be issued by the Chair and will set out:
- a) The nature of the offence and the improvement required (if appropriate) and over what period
 - b) The likely consequences of any further offence or failure by the employee to improve his/her conduct to an acceptable standard
 - c) That further offences will result in more serious disciplinary action; and
 - d) The employee's right of appeal.
- 3.2 A first Written Warning will normally remain in force for 6 months. The First Written Warning stage of the procedure may be omitted if the offence is of a sufficiently serious nature.

4. Final written warning

- 4.1 If further misconduct occurs within the time period specified in a First Written Warning, or if the misconduct is sufficiently serious, the employee will be given a Final Written Warning. A Final Written Warning will be issued by the Chair and will set out:
- a) The nature of the offence and the improvement required (if appropriate) and over what period
 - b) The likely consequences of any further offence or a failure by the employee to improve his/her conduct to an acceptable standard
 - c) That further offences will result in more serious disciplinary action up to and including dismissal; and
 - d) The employee's right of appeal.
- 4.2 Final Written Warnings may also be issued in circumstances where the misconduct does not amount to gross misconduct but is sufficiently serious to warrant only one written warning. A Final Written Warning will normally remain in force for 12 months.

5. Standard council disciplinary procedure

- 5.1 In the case of further misconduct within the time period specified in any Final Written Warning or if the misconduct is sufficiently serious and the Council deems it to be appropriate to contemplate the dismissal, demotion or suspension (without pay) of the employee the following formal disciplinary procedure will be followed.

- 5.2 The Council will investigate the alleged misconduct and will establish the facts surrounding the complaint as necessary, taking into account the statements of any available witnesses.
- 5.3 The Council will set out in writing the alleged conduct or other circumstances which lead it to contemplate dismissing the employee or taking disciplinary action against the employee and the basis for the allegation and will send the employee a copy of the statement inviting the employee to attend a disciplinary meeting to discuss the matter. The employee will be provided with a reasonable opportunity to consider his or her response to the information provided in the statement before attending the meeting. The employee must take all reasonable steps to attend the meeting.
- 5.4 Disciplinary meetings will normally be convened within 5 working days of the Council sending the employee the written statement referred to in 5.3 above. The employee may be accompanied to any disciplinary meeting by a person approved/agreed by the Council or by a representative of a trade union. The Council will be represented by the Chair.
- 5.5 If the time or date proposed for the meeting is inconvenient (either for the employee or for the employee's companion should he or she wish to be accompanied to the meeting pursuant to 5.4 above) the employee may ask to postpone the meeting by up to 5 working days.
- 5.6 The meeting may be adjourned to allow matters raised during the course of the meeting to be investigated, or to afford the Council time to consider its decision.
- 5.7 After the meeting the Chair of the Hearing will inform the employee of the decision and any applicable sanction within 5 working days. The meeting may be reconvened for this purpose. The decision will be confirmed to the employee in writing.
- 5.8 If the employee wishes to appeal against the decision he or she must notify the Chair of the Council in writing within 5 working days of receiving written notice of the decision. The Chair will nominate a person or persons (eg the Chair and at least one other Councillor of a neighbouring Parish Council) who was/were not involved in the original decision, to consider the appeal within 14 days of the decision at the previous stage and to set up an appeal meeting.
- 5.9 The employee must take all reasonable steps to attend that appeal meeting. The employee has the right to be accompanied to a disciplinary appeal meeting by a person approved/agreed by the Council or by a representative of a trade union.
- 5.10 An appeal meeting will normally be convened within 7 working days of the Appeal Chair receiving notification that the employee wishes to appeal pursuant to 5.8 above. If the meeting date is inconvenient for the employee or the employee's companion he or she may ask to postpone the meeting by up to 5 working days:
 - a) Any new evidence that the employee wishes to put forward will be considered, as will any new evidence from the Council. The original disciplinary penalty will be reviewed
 - b) The disciplinary appeal sanction originally imposed cannot be increased upon appeal
 - c) The appeal meeting will not necessarily take place before any original disciplinary sanction imposed takes effect. If the employee's appeal is against dismissal and the appeal is successful, the employee will be reinstated and continuity of employment will be preserved
 - d) The meeting may be adjourned to allow matters raised during the course of the meeting to be investigated, or to afford the Council time to reconsider its original decision.
- 5.11 After the meeting, the Appeal Chair will inform the employee of its final decision within 5 working days. The meeting may be reconvened for this purpose. The decision will be confirmed to the employee in writing.

- 6.3 The Council will investigate the matter and will establish the facts surrounding the complaint as necessary, taking into account the statements of any available witnesses. As part of that investigation the employee will be interviewed.
The Council will set out in writing the alleged conduct or other circumstances which lead it to contemplate dismissing the employee or taking disciplinary action against the employee and the basis for the allegation and will send the employee a copy of the statement inviting the employee to attend a disciplinary meeting to discuss the matter. The employee will be provided with a reasonable opportunity to consider his or her response to the information provided in the statement before attending the meeting. The employee must take all reasonable steps to attend the meeting.
- 6.4 If, after the Hearing, the Council believes the employee is guilty of gross misconduct his or her employment will be terminated summarily without notice or pay in lieu of notice.
- 6.5 The Council will send the employee a statement, setting out the outcome of the Hearing. The date on which the employment terminated will be confirmed to the employee and the employee may be reminded of any continuing obligations he or she may have following the termination of employment. This statement will also explain the employee's right to appeal against the Council's decision.
- 6.6 If the employee wishes to appeal against the Council's decision he or she must inform the Chair of the Council in writing within 5 working days of receiving notice of the Council's decision pursuant to 6.5 above. The Chair will nominate a person or persons (eg the Chair and at least one other Councillor of a neighbouring Parish Council) who was/were not involved in the original decision to consider the appeal within 14 days of the decision at the previous stage and to set up an appeal meeting.

The employee has the right to be accompanied to a disciplinary appeal meeting by a person approved/agreed by the Council or by a representative of a trade union.
- 6.8 Any appeal meeting will normally be convened within 7 working days of the Appeal Chair receiving notice from the employee that he or she wishes to appeal pursuant to 6.6 above. If the date of the meeting is inconvenient for the employee or his or her companion the employee may ask to postpone the meeting by up to 5 working days:
- a) Any new evidence that the employee wishes to put forward will be considered, as will any new evidence from the Council. The original disciplinary penalty will be reviewed
 - b) The disciplinary appeal sanction originally imposed cannot be increased upon appeal

2. Formal grievance procedure

- 2.1 The employee must set out his/her grievance in writing ("Statement of Grievance") and provide a copy to the Chair.

3. Modified council grievance procedure for former employees

- 3.1 If an ex-employee wishes to raise a grievance, he or she must set out their grievance and the basis for that grievance in writing and provide a copy to the Chairman.
- 3.2 Following receipt of a statement of grievance pursuant to 3.1 above, the Chair will either write to the ex-employee inviting him or her to attend a meeting to discuss the grievance, or to ask for the ex-employee's agreement to the committee responding to the grievance in writing.
- 3.3 If the ex-employee does not agree to the matter being dealt with by correspondence within 7 working days of the council writing to them pursuant to 3.2 above steps 2.1 to 2.4 of the standard council grievance procedure will be followed. The meeting will be conducted by the Parish Council.
